Veto of the Habes Corpus Bill—Rumor that President Johnson will Resign—Banks and the St. Petersburg Mission.

NEW YORK, March 25.

The Tribune's special says that at the Cabinet meeting yesterday President Johnson submitted several important substitutes for the bill among which his veto of the bill taking from the Supreme Court appellate jurisdiction in cases of habeas corpus.

The rumor is again about that the President intends to resign before the conclusion of the trial.

The World's special says it is now reported that Mr. Seward has promised the mission to St. Petersburg to Gen. Banks.

The President's veto of the bill to prevent appeals in habeas corpus cases is completed. It was approved by the Cabinet to-day, and will be presented to Congress to-morrow.

Proceedings of the Missouri Legislature—Charges of Bribery Refuted—The McCook and Coburn Prize Fight—Bloody Indian War Predicted.

St. Louis, March 25.

The committee appointed to investigate the charges of bribery against members of the Legislature and others, have reported that no such could be procured to substantiate the charges.

The Senate has passed a bill authorizing the people of this city to determine, by a two-thirds vote, whether the city government shall contribute $4,000,000 to the construction of a bridge.

The House refused to concur in the Senate's amendment to the Pacific Railroad bill, selling that road to the present company for a half million dollars.

Western papers say that the heaviest snow ever known in Southern Colorado and New Mexico this year.

The Indians had left their reservation and gone back to their old home in Denison by their agent.

Western papers state and profess to believe that the bloody Indian war on record will be commenced about the middle of April.

Vote on the New Arkansas Constitution—Its Probable Defeat by About 8,000 Majority.

MEMPHIS, March 25.

Private telegrams from radical sources claim that Arkansas has gone for the Constitution, but the Avalanche's special from Little Rock to-day says the following counties give majorities for the Constitution: Garland, 50%; Lincoln, 50%; Phillips, 1,300. The remaining twenty counties head from so far give the following majorities against: Ashley, 49%; Conway, 49%; Crawford, 50%; Dallas, 50%; Drew 49%; Franklin 18%; Perna, 58%; Hempstead, 27; Hot Springs 254; Independence, 104; Jackson, 39%; Lawrence, 454; Ouachita, 500; Randolph, 49%; Sevier, 50%; Searcy, 50%; White, 49%. These counties are mostly in negro districts, while the districts in the north-west have not been heard from, but it is expected they will largely increase the anti-slavery vote. The Central and several large counties are yet to hear from which will give large majorities for the Constitution. It is estimated that the Constitution will be defeated by not less than 8,000. The election passed on quietly throughout the State.

SOUTH AMERICA.

Unsatisfactory Condition of Affairs in Venezuela.

HAVANA, March 24.

Business in the general market yesterday was rather quiet; jobbers however did quite a fair trade. Provisions are firm at quotations, and merchants are not disposed to press stocks; they seem to be rather inclined to hold them, selling off the flour market is steady, with moderate stocks of high grades and light stocks of low grades. Grain is quiet at quotations, but decidedly firm. In country produce there has been a remarkable change. The tobacco market is firm, with moderate stocks of the medium grades. At the auction yesterday, 292 bbls. were offered and 234 sold at prices ranging from $4 to $12 per bbl.

At Cucarachas, on the 17th inst., there were still some cases of veneno. The rebellion left their wounded in Calaca. Guerrillas are in Caguana marauding. San Juan Cruz and Caguana, and Dariario Reports from Jumaca state that the rebels are within fifteen miles of Carracas. That capital is in a state of siege, and the rebels are threatening to capture it. The Secretary of the French Legation had been shot through a blunder of the troops and the yacht Suliana's party narrowly escaped a like fate.

RHODE ISLAND.

Daring Robbery of a National Bank.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 25.

The Scioto National Bank was robbed last night of twenty-five thousand dollars in bills and bonds. The cash was carried off by four men, carried to a vault, and compelled to open the vaults for the robbers who escaped. The capital of the bank is $56,000.

THE ROMANCE OF MISFORTUNE—A MELANCHOLY STORY.

A few days since there came to this city, to seek a transatlantic asylum for her and her two sons, a poor widow suffering from scrofulous disease, and was received by the ravages of relentless chronic disease, and rendered miserably despondent by a series of distressing misfortunes. Along with her had come a son, a lad of ten, whom she left her home near Lancaster, Pa., to join her husband, a private soldier, John W. McGehee, who had been captured by the rebels, and was held in a prison camp at Columbia, Mo. The Longworth arrived yesterday. She has nothing for Cincinnati; for other points 25 tons sundries, 2 hogheads sugar, and 15 crates of ware.

John W. McGehee didn't get off yesterday, but got rapidly to-day for New Orleans. She is well known to be a boat possessing all the good qualities, and her experience, noble natured, and active mind, made you feel at home on board.
